Club activities noted

The Concord Chapter of Young Homemakers has been especially active the past few months.

On November 5, the Chapter sponsored a country gospel music show as a fund raiser at the Concord Elementary School. The bands and groups featured were the Dutchman's Branch, The Three in One, and the King's Messengers. It was very successful and the Concord Young Homemakers are donating money towards the purchase of playground equipment for the Concord Elementary School.

At our November 7 meeting, Mr. Kelsi Hughes, Manager of the Cand P Telephone Company in Lynchburg, gave a program , which was open to the public on the changes in the telephone company.

The Concord Chapter of Young Homemakers hosted the Fall South Central Area Meeting and Banquet at E.C. Glass High School on November 18.Mrs. Helen Franklin, of the Concord Chapter, who is also the South Central Area President, presided. Mrs. Maude Braford, the Concord Chapter Advisor, received Honorary Membership in the South Central Conference Area. The Concord Chapter received four awards: second place for Outstanding Chapter, third place for Safety, an award for Membership and Growth, and an award for Up Membership. It was quite an evening to say the least!

At the December 5 meeting held at the home of Mrs. Maureen Shupe, the Chapter prepared fourteen Christmas boxes for some of the area elderly and shut-ins. The new slate of officers for 1984 were selected. The new officers will be President, Mrs. Maureen Shupe; Vice-President, Mrs. Mary Jo Booth; Treasurer, Mrs. Frances Horning; Secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Perrow; Historian, Mrs. Colena Roberts; and Reporter, Mrs. Dale

The Jan. 2 meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Patricia Lewis. The installation of new officers will be held on January 12 at the covered dish supper to be held at the Concord Fire Department in honor of the Dutchman's Branch Band who helped make our music show in November such a success.

On January 27-28, is the State Convention of the Young Homemakers of Virginia in Norfolk. It will be held at the Omni Hotel. Approximately ten members plan on attending. Mrs. Barbara Jordan and Mrs. Dale Hampton will be voting delegates from the Concord Chapter.

The Chapter meeting on February 6, will be held at the Concord Fire Department at 7:30pm. Mr. Sam Baker will give a program on railroad safety.

In cooperation with the air lines, the cost is back to 1981 price and she invites her friends and neighbors to join her for eight unforgettable days in Hawaii. The cost is $859 for each person for eight days. Call or come by Gaines' Jewelers for more information.

ACVRS installs officers

The Appomattox County Rescue Squad held its annual banquet and installation of officers Saturday evening, Jan. 7 at the Liberty Baptist Church social hall.

The guest speaker and installing the officers was Bill Britton, Appomattox town manager.

Ray Noble, Captain, presents Crewman of the Year Award to Mrs. Ruby Roach.

RAY NOBLE, CAPTAIN, ACVRS presents Life Membership to Jimmy Rogers, right.

Britton spoke in his capacity as member of the Governor's Advisory Board to the Virginia Emergency Medical Services. Britton spoke concerning proposals and aspirations of the group in giving more thorough services to the rural squads. By his representation on the board he is able to voice the needs of small squads over the larger more vocal and powerful groups. He, also, gave a breakdown of the E.M.S. dollar tacked onto the license fee, formerly labeled "rescue squad" funds.

Highlights of the evening began with the citation, by Captain Ray Noble, of Mrs. Ruby Roach, Outstanding Crewman of the Year, 1983. Mrs. Roach was chosen by the members for efforts and actions beyond her normal rescue squad duties.

Life memberships were presented to Mr. James C. Rogers and Mr. A. Gordon Staples. Mr. Paul (Pete) Doss spoke just prior to this presentation to thank everyone for his award last year and said he hoped the new recipients would be as thrilled and honored as he was in receiving this honor.

Honorary memberships were presented to Mr. Charles T. Moses, Mrs. Bess Pulliam, Mr. John S. Grinels and Dr. Clyde G. O'Brien. Doug Seamster, in presenting these awards, stated that there were four things that came to mind when he thought of our local rescue squad. The first was that "God Almighty had been very good to us," the second being that there had never been any trouble raising funds due to the generosity of the fine Appomattox County people, thirdly, that the fellowship and the ability of the members was outstanding and last but not least, the people of the business community "have supported and sustained us everyway possible."

Officers installed for the year 1984 were: President, D.L. Seamster; Vice-President, Harry T. Ferguson, Jr.; Communications Officer, James C. Rogers, Sr.; Training Officer, G. P. Beasley, Jr.; Captain, Raymond A. Noble; 1st Lt., Nellie P. Almond; 2nd Lt. Senior, P.O. Doss; 2nd Lt. Jr., Ruby E. Roach; Motor Sgt., Cecil W. Kidd; Sgt. of Building and Grounds, Virginia Franklin; Secretary, Nancy Elder; Treasurer, Toby Inge.

The meal was prepared by J and E. Catering Services.
